5 pts. What did I do to prepare for class this week?

Well with this being the first week, I prepared by reading the syllabus. I also did the preparation assignment.

5 pts. What topics were studied this week, and what are their definitions?

Teamwork was what we studied which means the combined action of a group of people, especially when effective and efficient.

10 pts. What is the most significant take-a-way you have gained from your study this week?

The most significant take-a-way I gained from my study this week is the importance of teamwork. I know it's the name of the class but learning that there is no possible way to make it by myself really opened my eyes on how big teamwork plays a role in my life.

10 pts. How would you explain this week's topics to a person not in this class?

I would explain that it was learning the importance of teamwork. We use teamwork in almost everything we do. There is no way we would make it in this life without teamwork.

10 pts. What did you learn by explaining this week's topic to someone not in this class?

I learned that teamwork is often overlooked. I explained the importance of teamwork to my buddy and how we as humans rely on teamwork to live. He told me that he hasn't really thought about that much before but it's so true.

20 pts. Why is this week's topic important for teamwork?

Well this week's topic was the basics of teamwork. So it was really important for teamwork! Claims were made in the preparation that teamwork may be the most vital soft skill.

20 pts. How do you plan on contributing to the team, besides completing your tasks?

I plan on making sure I am being an effective communicator. This means that I will answer any questions my teammates ask to the best of my ability. I also will make sure I will ask questions if I get lost. Being able to be an effective communicator will help greatly with teamwork.

20 pts. If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel?

There are several ways you can relate teamwork to the gospel. The first way that comes to mind is how earth was made. Jesus and Micheal used teamwork to create everything! Another example you can tie it to is eternal marriage. There is no way you can be eternally married and not have great teamwork!
